Contract wins

EU Supply (LSE AIM: EUSP), the e-procurement software provider, is pleased to announce that four new contracts have been signed for the use of the Group’s CTM™ platform, including the first contract in Germany through its distributor, T-Systems Multimedia Solutions GmbH (“T-Systems”).

Each of these contracts is of relatively low value. The German contract which is for two years is with Einkaufsverbund der Krankenkassen, a procurement consortia of health insurance authorities in Germany. T-Systems will start the implementation of EU Supply’s CTM™ platform this month.

Two of the contract wins are in Denmark and are with the Danish police force and Nordkøb A/S, the procurement office of six local utilities. These wins further consolidate the Group’s strong market position in Denmark and the Board estimates that the Group has more than 50 per cent. of the Danish public tender management system market, well ahead of its main competitors.

The fourth contract is with another county council in Norway.

Commenting on the German contract, Miroslav Snidr, Head of Procurement Services of T-Systems, said:

“With this first contract win and our pipeline of opportunities, we are optimistic, both short- and long-term, in signing further contracts for EU Supply’s CTM™ platform in Germany.”
